

Making a gift in your Will:

Information for your solicitor

Preparing your Will

To make sure the wording in your Will accurately describes your intentions, we suggest including the following clause:

I give (a specified share of the residue/or the sum of/or a specified bequest) to Essentially Men Education Trust for its general purposes (or a specific purpose) and I declare that the receipt of the appointed officer of the Trust shall be full and sufficient discharge for the said legacy.

I further declare that if at the date of my death or the date of distribution of my estate, any charity named in my Will does not exist or has amalgamated with another charity or has changed its name, such legacy or residuary gift shall not fail but my trustees shall pay it to the charitable organisation which they consider most nearly fulfils the objects I intended to benefit.

NOTE – Legal requirements: This Codicil must be signed in the presence of 2 adult witnesses (who are not beneficiaries of the Will). Both must witness the Testator and each other sign, and give their name, address and occupation.